COME ALIVE COLLECTION

Sunlife has launched the "Come Alive Collection", a series of experiences to radiate the magic of Mauritius. Here are six experiences at La Pirogue:

Pirogue Painting

Lying, as if run aground, on the silver-white sand of white Flic en Flac beach, curious guests approach an authentic pirogue fishing boat. This retired vessel may have finished its seafaring duties years ago, but it has now been reborn as a three-dimensional canvas. Guests are encouraged to express themselves creatively by painting or decorating the proud pirogue with colourful marks, which over time becomes a symphony of vibrant patterns like a giant jewel by the ocean. Unleash your artistic potential freely at the Pirogue Painting throughout your stay at your convenience.

Brilliant Breakfast

Start the day in good health with a hearty breakfast served in your very own private pirogue. Floating in the turquoise lagoon, you will be treated to delicacies and flavours that are as delicious as they are nutritious. Listen as your server describes the extraordinary variety of native foods and culinary flairs as a soundtrack of waves breaks gently on the reef. Book your breakfast at the F&B Concierge.

Village Vibe

At La Pirogue, guests are immediately welcomed into the buzz and bustle of local village life as the team creates an arrival experience like no other. Here, there are no boring reception desks or conventional entrance paraphernalia. Instead, your grand entrance moment will come alive to the beat and energy of market stalls manned by local vendors offering glaçon râpé and other edible treats. Craft makers showcase up-cycled jewellery made from shells while artists mix vibrant colours at their easels.

It is an arrival experience during the day free of charge.

Marsan Confi

Now meet our charismatic storyteller. In his colourful attire and comical straw hat, can you spot him as he meanders across the resort on his bicycle? He's always ready to share one of many fascinating tales that tell of the history and traditions of the island he calls home. While listening to this local legend regale you with his yarns, try a fresh fruit salad or a 'confit', which is fruit according to a traditional recipe and paired with salt, chilli and tamarind sauce. Collect your voucher upon arrival and meet Vijay during your day to taste the local fruits.

Coral Farming

At La Pirogue, we are serious about looking after our natural environment, which is why we invite our guests to join us in coral farming under the supervision of our Resident Marine Biologist. During the activity, they learn more about this vitally important underwater ecosystem, attach new corals to ropes, and assist with nursery cleaning and seabed maintenance. Guests have now contributed more than 500 coral fragments to the floating nursery, a total that grows daily thanks to our eco-conscious friends. Meet the Marine Biologist to learn more about our underwater ecosystem (activity is free of charge)
